

Tuesday - 16 October 1951

1. Mr. Borden, Director of the staff of the Joint Congressional Committee on Atomic Energy, made available for our comment a section entitled "Security and Intelligence" from the Committee's forthcoming report on its achievements. I submitted the text to Dr. Chadwell, who indicated considerable dislike of the section on security grounds, and I have so informed Mr. Borden.